Welcome to Ireland's Blueways

Do it your way and create your own unique Blueway experience.

Whether you're into paddling, walking, cycling, or simply hooked on the outdoors, make yours a trip to remember on Ireland's Blueways.

Activity trails along the Lough Derg Blueway provide a scenic perspective into the heart of the Irish landscape. From leisurely strolls and gentle paddles to adrenaline-filled days on land and water - Blueways offer tailor-made trips like no other.

Timelessness meets 'time of your life' when you arrive on a Blueway. So create your own adventure or take it at your own pace and do the Blueways your way!

While you're enjoying these Blueway trails, there's so much more to see and do in the local area. The following range of guides have been created to help you make the most of your visit to the Blueways:

Festivals, Dining and Accommodation – This guide helps you to find the festivals to go to, where to eat and the place to rest your head after a full day.

Heritage and Culture – With the Blueways Guide to Heritage and Culture, you can take a break from all that Blueway activity and choose to step back in time.

Made in Lough Derg (Arts, Crafts and Food) – With the guide to Arts, Crafts and Food, you will be able to use your trip to the Blueway to explore traditional skills and taste locally produced food.

Outdoor Activity – The Outdoor Activity Guide provides you with so many reasons to celebrate being in the great outdoors.

4 Revived and Retro

If you have a passion for creating something new and unique from old materials or you hate to throw something away just because it is old, then Revived and Retro is the place for you. The family-run business re-works existing furniture or objects into quirky modern pieces or collaborates with clients to design something personal from existing materials. It might be a clock made from a vinyl record or a vintage suitcase turned into a table. The online shop features products that have been upcycled and items made to order. Revived and Retro share their skills and eye for the unusual through demonstrations and workshops.

15 Ian Kelly Bog Oak Sculptor

Sculptor Ian Kelly is helping to revive an age-old Irish tradition of using bog-wood as a decorative and artistic material. For centuries people used the trunks and stumps of trees found in bogs for building, furniture and household utensils. In the 19th century, bog-wood, which has been buried in bogs for thousands of years, was popular for fine furniture and Jewellery made of shining bog-wood was often set with pearls and gold. Ian Kelly gives workshops in bog-wood carving and leads tours of local boglands. His studio is part of East Clare Craft Trail and visitors are welcome.

East Clare Artists Trail and Lough Derg Craft Trail

Art and craft workers create objects and artworks of great beauty that enrich our lives. You can meet and observe many of these creative workers in two trails that overlap and wend their way around studios dotted throughout the Lough Derg region. Art in Studios, the East Clare Artists Trail, invites visitors to the studios of many wonderful artists working near the western shore of Lough Derg.

A pdf with details of the artists, their work and locations can be downloaded from www.discoverloughderg.ie/east-clare-art-trail/ / www.artinstudios.ie.

You can introduce yourself to several other craft workers working on the Clare shore of Lough Derg through the Lough Derg Craft Trail, which extends from Killaloe to Portumna and westward to Feakle. Observe the skills of potters, weavers and textile artist as they practise their trades. Details of craft workshops and their locations can be found at www.discoverloughderg.ie/lough-derg-craft-trail.

FOOD MARKETS

Food and Farmers Markets are held in several locations around Lough Derg. Irish County Markets is a national co-operative founded in 1947. It has 56 affiliated markets and everything sold must be produced locally by its members. Produce carries the Country Markets label, which ensures traceability. Farmers Markets consist of individual stallholders. An Bord Bia (the Irish Food Board), operates a Code of Good Practice for Farmers Markets.

A Taste of Lough Derg is an annual showcase of the great food produced in the Lough Derg region. It is held in many locations around Lough Derg from June-September.
